

A satisfactory handful of saved dollars that the wise man presents to the cashier of a SAVINGS BANK within the leaves of his Bank Book. Because he's sure of seeing it again plus 4 per cent. interests; because he knows he's preparing for the sunset of his life, and because it means precious independence for him then. If spendthrifts could but once taste the joy of the money-saver on his way to the bank with a handful of saved dollars! A Bank as convenient in methods and hours as

A Plain, Direct Question.

If you were going to open a bank account to-day, who would you give it to?

ANSWER. FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Because it is safely and conservatively managed.
Because it has an excellent board of directors.
Because it is certainly and conveniently located.
Because it loans its money to its customers on good security.

Because it is a progressive, up-to-date bank.
Because it wants business and asks for it.
